

THE DAILY STAR

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23
LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

For the next 24 hours cloudy with light rain and warm; clearing by to-morrow morning.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

OFFICER SUMMER is on duty again. This pay-roll of the Board of Improvements last week amounted to $1,918.75.
BEN SHOTT has been reinstated. Where, oh where is Count Hambrick?
A GENTLEMAN on an Elm street car was relieved of $5 by a pick-pocket yesterday.

DR. L. M. WISE lectures at College Hall this evening—the first lecture of the Mercantile Library series.

NO MEETING of the Shakespeare Club this evening, on account of the death of Mrs. C. S. Wright, a valued member.

THE CITY ENGINEER will soon report on the cost of extending the Crawfish road from the avenue to a point near the main avenue.

It is rumored that the First Presbyterian Church, Fourth street, and the Seventh Presbyterian Church, Broadway, will be consolidated.

OFFICERS COY AND BAHLMAN, of the Fifth District, and Dick Richardson, of Cumminsville, have been suspended, and are awaiting investigation.

WHERE was that private watchman of the Court street Market-house, who the butchers and market men were being robbed, at an early hour yesterday morning?

A MUSICAL entertainment and supper will be given this evening in Neff's old knife factory, on State street, for the benefit of Bethany Mission Sunday-school building.

JOHN HOLMES, for stealing daily papers of the value of $4 from Herman Bookbinder, the Cumminsville carrier, took to the woods for ten days and pays a fine of $10.

THE BUILDERS of the Eighth-street railroad are paving the street as they progress with the rails, so that it will be in readiness for travel as soon as the last rail is placed down.

JAS. BECKE, Henry Banker, Robert Brown, arrested for running express without a license, expressed a sudden desire to get out the necessary papers, and they were discharged with costs.

IT HAS BEEN recommended to Council by the Board of Improvements that the City Auditor be authorized to sell the Market Work-house lot on Mt. Auburn, the proceeds to go into the General Fund.

SAMUEL TENNISON, living at 141 Lion street, last evening fell through a hatchway in Bormann's saloon on Vine street. He struck on his side on a keg of beer and injured himself severely. He was able after some time to ride home.

GUSTAV LIG, of No. 51 Peete street, who was intoxicated last night and attacked John Wuest, on Vine, threatened to shoot him, paid $12 and costs for his fine in the Police Court this morning. Mayor Johnson made the arrest in person.

THAT CHARGE of attempted rape against A. T. Riddle, a young man from Walnut Hills, on the person of a colored girl named Georgia Ann Davis, who lives with her parents at the corner of Seventh and Culver, didn't pan out. He was dismissed.

THE DIRECTORS of the City Infirmary issued 40 loads of coal to the poor yesterday, twelve and a half bushels to each applicant. The Overseers are instructed to issue certificates to those who are willing to pay for its delivery, as the Directors have no funds to pay for the hauling.

THE LAYING of pipes from the waste-way of the canal to supply the Spring Grove Cemetery lakes with water was commenced yesterday. A water main station for horses is proposed to be erected on the avenue, and plugs to be put in to provide water for sprinkling the avenues of the cemetery.

THE RETAIL dealers held a meeting at Arbeiter Hall last night, and drew up a petition protesting against persons selling such goods as belong to their trade on the market stands and against peddling such articles on the streets. A committee of five was appointed to obtain signatures to the document, which is to be presented to Council.

EDWARD DALBY was found night before last lying unconscious in a hut on the side of the railroad track at Foster's Crossing. Difficulties with his family had driven him from home and necessitated him to take refuge in the hut, where he was found. He had been badly cut, and though carefully attended to, he was still unconscious yesterday. His recovery is still doubtful. It is thought that the assault was the work of one of the family.

JOHN B. BROWN, colored, for assaulting with a knife Mr. and Mrs. Erskine, also colored, last Saturday night, at their house corner of Third and Central avenues, was run in by Officer Geo. W. Ryan. Brown threatened to baptize the family in blood, and did succeed in gashing both parties before he was scooped. The husband was badly cut about the head, and his wife was laid up for a time. He was bound over to the Court of Common Pleas in the sum of $500.

THE TAILORING store of Fred Kilmer & Co., corner of Main and Seventh streets, was broken into day before yesterday by burglars, who forced open the iron screw to the show window and cut out a glass. They were discovered by a private watchman, who struck one of the two as they were about to make their escape through the window, but he failed to capture either. They succeeded in carrying away several pieces of cloth, a lot of silk handkerchiefs, cheap shirt-studs and a number of sleeve-buttons, amounting to about $300 in value.

THOS. N. DOUTNEY, a temperance lecturer and "a reformed inebriate," as he frankly styles himself, is in the city, and we understand is making arrangements for the delivery of a lecture here. He is quite a young man, has a fine, flexible voice, good personal appearance, and is attractive as a speaker. He has something to say, and he says it well. He is a correspondent of the Boston Post, and son of the former editor of that paper. The Eastern press speak in the highest terms of his ability as a lecturer on his chosen theme. He will probably speak here this week.

THE BOSTON PROJECT.
Mr. A. D. Bullock, speaking yesterday in reference to the question raised in Council last week about the reservation of the space on Fifth street, opposite the new Government building, for street railroad purposes said: "Whenever a citizen like Mr. Sinton steps to the front with a magnificent donation of art to beautify the city, the Unconsolidated Street Railroad Company, so far as I am concerned, will not stand in the way, but will accommodate themselves to circumstances."

THE INITIAL LECTURE OF A COURSE THAT HAS BEEN INSTITUTED, IN WHICH LOCAL TALENT ALONE PARTICIPATES, WAS DELIVERED BY MR. W. S. CAPPELLAR IN THE QUEEN CITY LODGE-ROOM LAST NIGHT.

AMATEUR HEROLD, a young German, has been going around soliciting subscriptions for the "Landwehr Verein," and has been very successful in getting money. He visited most of the principal brewers and obtained over a hundred dollars, in sums ranging from $2.50 to $5, all of which he failed to turn over to the proper authorities. On complaint of two of his victims he was arrested a few days ago, and at his hearing this morning he was sent to the Work-house for sixty days and fined $75.

THE MAN who was arrested at College Hall this evening—the first lecture of the Mercantile Library series.

NO MEETING of the Shakespeare Club this evening, on account of the death of Mrs. C. S. Wright, a valued member.

THE CITY ENGINEER will soon report on the cost of extending the Crawfish road from the avenue to a point near the main avenue.

It is rumored that the First Presbyterian Church, Fourth street, and the Seventh Presbyterian Church, Broadway, will be consolidated.
